The Salvation Army Women's Auxiliary Newsletter December 2018

Your President's Message

Dear Ladies,

Many thanks to our generous members for donating delicious pies and attending our meeting to hear our guest speaker, Scott Atkins, Lied Bridge Apts. Manager. His delivery gave us a better understanding of how homeless individuals from shelters, ARC and vocational and veterans program make their transition from transitional housing to permanent housing. He also informed us of the many needs of household and personal items for residents and their one bedroom living quarters. Scott was very surprised and most appreciative by the many donations he received to take back to Owens St. Campus. More thanks to SAWA and to Barbara Santana & Aldona Jonynas for shopping and gathering the items you saw assembled on the table nearby. Our Christmas Tea will bring more donations from the hearts of many.

Take notice to the inserts for participation in many ways after our Christmas Tea. TSA needs you too. New members are encouraged to volunteer their time and learn what it means to be an active auxiliary member. You can start making noise by ringing the bell! You may sign up on line @ http://www.salvationarmysouthernnevada.org, click VOLUNTEER link and sign up accordingly.

Merry Christmas, Joy Wilson

VICE PRESIDENT: More thanks to every member who continues to honor our every request to support the many needs of The Salvation Army. Scott was more excited and grateful than any man I witnessed wearing a red shirt when he saw the array of donated hospitality gifts to take back to Lied Bridge residents. He's looking forward to SAWA touring the Lied Bridge Apts. next year. Valerie Meadors

HOSPITALITY NEWS: More thanks to every member who donated pies and other delicious sweets and thank you ladies for filling in to help set up and clean up. Names ending in H – M are welcome to help Dec.-Jan.-Feb. Hospitality Hostesses, Joni McKeller, Janice Mullins and Paula Jaros
